An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ms. Maas on 9/24/04.

In claim 1 line 2 after "solid," —wherein the solids are suitable for combinatorial evaluations," has been added.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: In addition to the remarks of record, the cited prior art fails to teach or anticipate the claimed method of evaluating solid materials suitable for combinatorial evaluations by the claimed method of supporting the solids on at least one substrate, contact with an adsorbate and determining at least one of the claimed surface properties by measuring the radiation emitted, absorbed or altered.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Lyle A Alexander whose telephone number is 571-272-1254. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.
